Infant Picked Up in Alley.
Policeman Walsh and Buckley of the sixth precinct found a colored female infant in an alley between 5th and 4th streets northwest, about 11:15 o'clock last night.
They took the foundling to the station, and afterward placed it in charge of a nurse in the employ of the board of children's guardians.

The child was apparently not more than three or four hours old. After the child had been given to the nurse the police started an investigation. They hope to find the mother of the child and discover who it was who assisted her in getting rid of it.

MEMORIAL CHURCH

Proposed Tribute to the Late President McKinley.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE ORGANIZED

Encouraging Responses to Request for Co-Operation and Support.

STATEMENT BY MR. BUCKLER

The plan to erect in Washington a church of notable dimensions and beauty as a memorial to the late President McKinley, which was announced in the news columns of the Star of October 23, has taken definite shape, those most interested in the project having been organized into an executive committee.

At the head of the new movement for a McKinley Memorial Church is Bishop John F. Hurst, chancellor of the American Episcopal church, associated with him as honorary members of the executive committee are the following Methodist clergymen: Rev.
H. R. Naylor, presiding elder of Washington district, Baltimore conference; Rev.
Frank M. Bristol, D.D., pastor of the late Presbyterian church, Rev. Lucien Clark, D.
D., pastor of Hamline M. E. Church, Members of the active committee are: Rev.
George Buckler, pastor of the New York Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church; Rev.
George C. Hough of Hamline M. E. Church; Rev. J. A. G. Thomas and Messrs. Frank Bourne, James A. Edgar, E. E. Schell and W. S. Robbins. The honorary members of the committee have been designated to receive the contributions toward the memorial.

In the few days that have elapsed since this committee was organized letters have been sent to prominent churchmen all the United States, inviting them to assist.
The replies have been uniformly gratifying to those in charge of the new memorial movement.

Rev. J. D. Kenny, who has been in the enterprise, has written Mr. Buckler as follows:

"I am glad to join you, brother, in helping on the project of building a memorial church. Our dear friend, President McKinley, loved the church of God, and nothing but a church could properly represent the rearing of an edifice to be called the McKinley Memorial Church. I thank you for the honor and compliment of your invitation. I am sure that the memory of William McKinley, who was a warm personal friend of about thirty years.

Statement by Mr. Buckler.
Mr. Buckler, as chairman of the active committee, made the following statement of his plans this morning to a reporter for the Star:

"Mr. McKinley was a Methodist. For this reason it would seem particularly appropriate that the memorial church should be a Methodist church. But Mr.
McKinley was more than a Methodist. He was a Christian, and his memory should be represented by a church of the Christian faith of the country. His heart was filled with love for honest men of all creeds. He delighted in demonstrating his disciple-ship to the world. He was a warm personal friend of about thirty years.

"The sum necessary to erect the memorial church is $100,000. We should like to have 100,000 people donate a dollar each. We shall furnish each subscriber with a neat certificate of honorary membership. We shall also furnish each subscriber with a copy of the constitution of the memorial church, and a copy of the plan of the church. We shall
the plan of the church. We shall also fur-
